IMPORTANT CAUTION.—A. ROWLAND AND SON, 20, HATTON GARDEN,
 LONDON, beg to caution the Nobility and Gentry against being misled by the attempts of some Shopkeepers, who, to compounds of their own manufacture, give the titles of "Macassar Oil," "Kalydor," and "Odonto;" some under the implied sanction of Royalty and the Government Departments, with similar attempts at deception; while they copy the Labels, Bills, Advertisements, and Testimonials (substituting fictitious names and addresses for the real) of the original preparations.
 The only genuine "Macassar Oil," "Kalydor," and "Odonto" are "ROWLANDS'"; and the Wrapper of each bears the name of "ROWLANDS'" preceding that of the article, with their Signature at the foot, in Red Ink, thus, "A. ROWLAND & SON." Sold by them, and by all Chemists and Perfumers.

THE AFFLICTED WITH RHEUMATISM, GOUT,
 PARALYSIS, TIC DOLOREUX, SPINAL AFFECTIONS, PAINS AND WEAKNESS IN THE LIMBS, JOINTS, &c., should read a Pamphlet which may be obtained by forwarding a paid letter inclosing three Postage Stamps, addressed to Mr. CABBURN'S Dispensary, King's Cross, wherein indisputable proofs are adduced that in many instances a complete victory has been obtained over the above afflictions, and that for a few shillings, or even pence in some cases, alleviation from pain may be effected, and in a short time a perfect restoration. Persons about to take the benefit of change, as to air, &c., should peruse this Pamphlet, it being the Fourth Edition of 400,000.

WILLIAM ALLEN'S REGISTERED PHILOSOPHICAL CORN SHIELD, and No. 1, Large, and No. 2, Small Size BUNION SHIELD, perforated (with holes in the centre) for Hard Corns and Bunions.
 WILLIAM ALLEN'S Registered Philosophical Corn Shield, and No. 1, Large, and No. 2, Small Size Bunion Shield, not perforated (without holes in the centre), for Soft Corns and Bunions.
 Invented and Prepared by the Proprietor, WILLIAM ALLEN, Chemist, (Member of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain,) No. 2, Morgan's Place, Liverpool Road, Islington, London. Sold, wholesale, (by his appointment) by DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY, 63, Oxford Street, London, and may be had of all Druggists and Medicine Venders in the Kingdom.
 N.B. The Corn and Bunion Shields are sold separate, in boxes at 1s. 1½d. each.

RHEUMATISM.—All those suffering from Rheumatism, Chilblains, Lumbago, Tic Doloreux, Cramp, Sprains, &c., will find immediate relief and a speedy cure by using CORRALL'S EMBROCATION. The great and increasing demand for this novel Embrocation induces the Proprietor to introduce it more generally to the Public, satisfied that one trial alone will be sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its superiority over all other articles offered for similar purposes.
 Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., and 2s. 9d. each, by the Sole Proprietor, GEORGE RICHARDSON, 12, Norland Place, Notting Hill; and by his appointment by BARCLAY and SONS, 95, Farringdon Street, and J. SANGER, 150, Oxford Street, and through any Chemist or Dealer in Patent Medicines throughout the Kingdom. Orders, by post, directed to the Proprietor, promptly attended to.

SIR JAMES MURRAY'S FLUID MAGNESIA. Prepared under the immediate care of the Inventor, and established for upwards of thirty years by the PROFESSION, for removing BILE, ACIDITIES, and INDIGESTION, restoring APPETITE, preserving a moderate state of the Bowels, and dissolving Uric Acid in GRAVEL and GOUT; also as an easy remedy for SEA SICKNESS, and for the febrile affection incident to childhood it is invaluable.—On the value of Magnesia as a remedial agent it is unnecessary to enlarge; but the Fluid preparation of Sir James Murray is now the most valued by the Profession, as it entirely avoids the possibility of those dangerous concretions usually resulting from the use of the article in powder, and in the over-dosed liquids of detected imitators.
 Sold by the sole Consignee, Mr. BAILEY, of North Street, Wolverhampton; and by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Medicine Agents throughout the British Empire, in bottles, 1s., 2s. 6d., 3s. 6d., 5s. 6d., 11s., and 21s. each.
 The Acidulated Syrup in Bottles, 2s. each.
 N.B.—Be sure to ask for "Sir James Murray's Preparation," and to see that his name is stamped on each label in green ink, as follows:—"James Murray, Physician to the Lord Lieutenant."

DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY beg to proffer their warmest thanks for the valuable and prompt corrections which have been most politely and kindly furnished them for the present number of their Almanack; and while they avail themselves of this opportunity of acknowledging these favours, they earnestly solicit a continuance of them in future years.

TO THEIR SUBSCRIBERS.

DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY beg to state that every effort has been made to render the present Almanack more worthy of public approbation; very great additions are given connected with the Calendar and astronomical calculations—the Chronology has been arranged with the utmost care, so as to furnish a concise history of all the leading events of the year 1846—various new and interesting matter is also given—and the Colonial Banks in correspondence with the metropolis, with the names of the gentlemen acting as managers, is also added to the banking list. Dietrichsen and Hannay therefore trust that the great attention, labour, and expense, which they bestow on their Almanack to render it of general utility, will suggest to the public the necessity of their continuing to honour them with their support in their general business of Chemists, Perfumers, and Patent Medicine Vendors.

The only Cure for Corns and Bunions.

RAMSBOTTOM'S CORN AND BUNION SOLVENT.

By the use of this valuable remedy, immediate relief from pain is obtained, and by its successive application for a short period, the most obstinate Corns are removed, without recourse to the dangerous operations of cutting or filing. The proprietor pledges himself that it does not contain caustic, or any other article that will inflame the skin; being white, it will not stain the stocking; and the advantage it has over plaister is manifest, and fully appreciated, as the very high recommendation bestowed upon it by every individual that has used it testifies.—Price 1s. 1½d. and 2s.

The various counterfeits that are attempted to be imposed upon the public in lieu of this invaluable remedy, render it imperatively necessary for purchasers to ask for S. Ramsbottom's Corn and Bunion Solvent, and to see that it has the signature of "S. Ramsbottom" written upon the label that is pasted on the outside of the wrapper of every genuine bottle, in addition to the name of the article, and the words "HANNAY & DIETRICHSEN, 63, Oxford Street," printed in white letters in the Government Stamp affixed to each bottle, who will forward a Bottle, free of carriage, to any part of the Kingdom, in return for one Shilling and two Fourpenny pieces, remitted free of postage.

GRAHAM'S

ANTI-CONSUMPTIVE LINIMENT!

The advantages of counter-irritant and other applications in PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, &c., have long been admitted on the Continent, and are now acknowledged by the most eminent medical men in England, but in consequence of the inconvenience and danger produced by their sudden and unequal action giving rise to extensive inflammation, they could not be used for a sufficient period to afford permanent benefit—for, just as the patients experience some relief, the parts become too tender to continue the application, and thus are all their expectations blighted, and they return to their former state. The Anti-Consumptive Liniment has none of these objections—it excites the skin, without causing the least tenderness or other inconvenience; relieves speedily and permanently all diseases of the Lungs, more especially that sadly fatal one CONSUMPTION, which it not only removes, but by timely application will prevent in those persons who are predisposed thereto. The chest, spine, &c., being rubbed with it, its astonishing powers are evinced by the relief of the most distressing symptoms, such as the difficulty of breathing, cough, pain, &c., also by Healing the Soreness and Restoring Strength to the Lungs and whole system; it requires no confinement or the least restraint, is perfectly safe, and may be used by the most delicate of either sex—indeed, for the more delicate patients, this remedy is peculiarly adapted, quickly relieving that irritability of the Stomach, and the various Affections of the Liver, Stomach, and Lungs, to which they are more especially subject. Sold at Hannay and Dietrichsen's Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, in Bottles at 4s. 6d. and 11s.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Venus is a splendid object in the mornings during this month, in the south-eastern part of the heavens. Saturn appears in the south-west after sun-set, and Mars in the south-east. The brilliant planet Jupiter being in opposition to the sun, is to be seen near the eastern horizon early in the evenings; near the meridian, or full south, at midnight; and adorning the western part of the heavens in the mornings. Persons who are in possession of good telescopes, may now be highly entertained with his belts and four satellites.

This is by no means an unimportant month to farmers: whatever winter ploughing may remain to be done should be no longer delayed, that the land may have the advantage of the frost naturally to be expected at this season. As in warm climates the soil is meliorated by the sun, it is no less benefited by frost in cold ones. Its action on clay soils is remarkable in rendering them loose and friable. Cattle of all sorts require much attention during this generally severely cold month. Ewes, especially those forward in lamb, require turnips. Cows, well kept, will pay for what they eat, their milk in consequence being in greater proportion and better in quality.

Prepare for all sowing and planting, as regards the kitchen garden; if this had been done in December it would have been better. If you choose to sow peas, though it is a bad practice, sow them early enough. You will get snow in January, which March seldom brings, and February never to stop on the ground, which is the great virtue of snow. Snow is the best covering for a garden we are acquainted with for the winter months. Ridge your land, and do that which few do—let your manure be mixed up with it as you ridge it.

The larks congregate, and the redbreast, the wren, and the missle-thrush sing; fieldfares and finches are now seen in flocks, and rooks resort to their nest-trees. The snow-drop and yellow crocus bloom at the end of this month, and a few flowers of the primrose and polyanthus are seen in sheltered places. The wild daisy blows in every month of the year.

The Latitude of London may be roughly taken at  $51^{\circ} 30'$  North.

NOTE.—In all places of high north Latitude, like Great Britain, when the Moon is due south, or, in other words, passes the meridian, she is at her greatest elevation from the horizon, and her light the brightest. The Moon appears the most interesting through a telescope when she is about ten or twenty days old.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Saturn appears near the western horizon after sun-set during the first week, after which he becomes invisible. Mars exhibits his ruddy disc in the south and south-west during the evening part; at which time Jupiter appears very brilliant in the eastern skies. Venus is a beautiful object in the mornings.

Frost being a powerful agent in obtaining mould for covering seeds, plough grass and other lands intended to produce a crop. In mild weather dress thorn hedges, and plant new ones. Lay up stores of seed corn, put implements into working trim, and execute many little jobs, that no interruption may be experienced in sowing time. Animals about to bring forth require particular attention. Keep calves warm, clean, and dry; give hay and sliced roots in addition to liquid food to such as are rearing.

Sow cucumbers, melons, kidney beans, and cauliflowers in hot-beds. Sow cabbages and savoy; onions or leeks for the main crop. Plant out early cabbages, and strike dahlias from roots in hot-beds. Prune apples, pears, plums, and cherries against walls or espaliers, and flowering shrubs in nursery grounds.

The redbreast warbles near our dwellings, and the wren tunes its sprightly notes. Rooks now revisit their breeding trees, and arrange the stations of their future nests. Turkey-cocks strut and gobble: partridges begin to pair, and house-pigeons have young. Bulfinches appear at this time in our gardens, and though timid half the year, are now fearless and persevering.

Not many plants are to be seen in blow during this month: the principal are the snow-drop, the common yellow crocus, and the dwarf bay (daphne niczereon), which puts forth its highly fragrant pale lilac flowers. The various species of mosses are now interesting by means of a good microscope.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Venus, at the beginning of this month, is to be seen before sun-rise, being yet the morning star. Mars is in the south-west in the evenings, and Jupiter appears very splendid in the south-eastern part of the heavens after sun-set.

This is now the time for sowing oats, clover, trefoil, sainfoin, peas, and tares. The live stock requires still to be well kept, particularly the ewes, or the lambs will show the consequences of neglect. Spread ant and mole hills, and roll meadow land.

Sow now the various esculents in common use, each fortnight this month, particularly if your winter crops have failed, the seeds sown now being always looked to as furnishing the principal crops of the year. Plant slips or cuttings of rosemary, rue, lavender, &c. This is the best time to graft fruit-trees, acacias, thorns, &c., and varieties of the China, perpetual, moss, and rosette roses, on the common briar of blush China rose, and to propagate them by layers.

The melody of birds now gradually swells upon the ear. The thrush, not much inferior to the nightingale in song, charms us with the sweetness and variety of its lays. The skylark sings delightfully as he soars towards the clouds. The blackbird and turkey lay, and house-pigeons sit. The bat is seen flitting about in mild evenings, and some insects make their appearance, such as black ants, &c.

The leaves of honeysuckles are now nearly expanded; in our gardens the buds of the cherry-tree, the peach, the nectarine, the apricot, and the almond, are fully opened in this month. The common whitlow grass on old walls; the yellow Alpine whitlow grass on maritime rocks; and the mountain pepperwort among limestone rocks, flower in March.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Mars is to be seen in the south-western part of the heavens every clear evening: the beautiful planet Jupiter to the south of Mars, and higher in the skies, will attract every person's attention; his belts and satellites afford ample amusement to those who are in possession of good telescopes.

Dry weather is still acceptable to the farmer, who is employed in sowing various kinds of grain, and seeds for fodder, as buck-wheat, lucern, sainfoin, clover, &c. The young corn and springing grass, however, are materially benefited by occasional showers. The important task of weeding now begins with the farmer; and every thistle cut down, every plant of charlock pulled up, may be said to be not only an advantage to himself, but a national benefit.

All principal sowing and planting of natural or full crops, pot-herbs, eatable plants, &c., omitted last month, should be finished early in this.

Sow lettuce, radishes, and small salad at two or three different times. Shelter your choice auriculars from all extremes of weather. Stocks and wall-flowers may be planted out in the open ground.

During this month a great variety of birds arrive on our shores from the south, such as the nightingale, the blackcap, the redstart, the whitethroat, the swallow, the cuckoo, &c. Our stationary birds are busy constructing their nests, and insects are making their appearance in every direction.

The progress of vegetation is general and rapid in this month. The blackthorn or sloe puts forth its elegant flowers; a host of others follow, among which may be named the ash, ground-ivy, and the box-tree. The apricot, the peach, the nectarine, the wild and garden cherry, the plum, gooseberry, and currant trees, the hawthorn, and the sycamore are now in flower. The blossoms of the apple and pear present to the eye a most agreeable spectacle, particularly in those counties which abound with orchards. The beech and the larch are now in full leaf: the horse-chestnut now displays its green leaves and its handsome white and red flowers. The laurel is in bloom, and the little violet opens its modest, but exquisitely sweet flowers.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Mars and Jupiter appear near each other throughout this month, in the evenings; at the beginning of the month Jupiter will appear above Mars, at the end he will appear below Mars; on the 17th they are in conjunction. Venus is now a morning star, but too much in the rays of the sun to be seen by the naked eye.

On arable ground preparation for turnips, and working naked summer fallows, where they have been adopted, are the principal operations of this month. Potatoes omitted in April must now be planted without delay. The dairy is at this time in full operation.

Sow carrots, lettuce, capsicums, cauliflowers, spinach, Knight's marrow-fat peas, &c. Propagate wall-flowers, rockets, &c., by cutting off the stalks: sow annuals in succession, and keep the primula tribe rather dry at this time. Evergreens may still be transplanted with balls of earth to the roots. Stir up the earth round your carnations, and clear them from dead leaves.

The migratory birds finish their arrival at this season, among which the most conspicuous are the fern-owl, the swift, the reed-sparrow, and the garden warbler. The nightingale sings all night throughout this month; this bird is the most celebrated of all the feathered race for its song. The busy bee is now to be found actively engaged from flower to flower, and butterflies begin to show themselves.

The garden now assumes a cheerful appearance. The lily of the valley, the laurel and China roses, London pride, lilac, broom, rough comfrey, globe flower, yellow asphodel, and various other plants, are now in full flower. In the fields we find the wild germander exhibiting its fine blue blossoms. Wild geraniums, some of simple colours, others delicately pencilled, decorate the banks and hedge-rows.

Newcastle-upon-Tyne.—High Water daily exactly two hours earlier than Hull.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Mercury appears about the middle of this month in the evenings. Mars is to be seen in the western skies after sun-set, and Jupiter shines out below him with brighter lustre.

Hoe potatoes and beans, and mow clover; about new Midsummer-day sow the common field-turnip seed, and provide pits for the rating of flax. Wash and shear sheep. Fleeces are found proportionate to the treatment of the animals.

Sow radishes, cabbages, peas, cucumbers, carrots, French beans, broccoli, &c. Cut herbs for drying, propagate roses and evergreen shrubs by layers and cuttings, and take up all those bulbs that have done flowering. Plant out cucumbers and pumpkins, previously raised from seed, and if not done in the preceding month, on pits filled with stable dung, or any green weeds, as nettles, &c., which will ferment. Both these are useful in cottage cookery, and with an onion and salt make a fine stew. The pumpkin bakes well with a few apples or pears.

The common jay frequents our gardens, and makes great havoc in the bean-rows. The fern-owl appears. Young birds begin to show themselves on every bush. The nightingale ceases to pour forth his melodious airs, but the blackcap and garden-warbler continue in song throughout this month. Mackerel are at this time taken in abundance. The May-fly appears; the golden green beetle, and the large stag-beetle present themselves to notice.

The fields and hedge-sides teem with wild flowers, while brooklime and forget-me-not spread their blue blossoms along the edges of streams, rivulets, &c. The plants chiefly in blow in our gardens are the moss Provence rose; the double yellow, and the yellow rose; also the garden and the Indian pink, dwarf larkspur, sweet William, turk's-cap lily, pinks, carnations, &c.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

The planets of our system are now unfavourably situated for observation; Mars, at the beginning of the month, may be perceived near the western horizon after sun-set, and Saturn in the south-east, early in the morning.

As the hay harvest now becomes general, I would advise the farmer to be particular in noting his barometer, and when in a rising state, to make the best use of his time. Single out turnips, and constantly employ the hoe with an intention of improving the crops. Thoroughly work fallows with plough, harrow, and roller. Daily examine sheep, for now they are apt to be attacked by the fly and maggot.

Gather walnuts for pickling, pull full-grown onions, and prepare mushroom spawn. Plant out broccoli, cauliflower, savoy, leeks, and winter cabbages. Save seeds of annual, biennial, and perennial flowers, drying them first in the shade, and afterwards in the sun.

Young birds are now very numerous: the grasshopper is heard every sunny day in the meadows, where the nests of humble bees are plentiful. The death-watch is heard in houses of old standing.

Among the principal plants in flower during this month are the damask rose, the tulip tree, yellow lupin, African marygold, musk flower, sweet pea, African and white lily, &c., &c. The fruits of the earth, ripening in the solar rays, lead us to meditate on Divine benevolence.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

The only planet that arrests notice this month is Saturn, which appears nearly due south at day-break.

A winter supply of turnips may yet be sown, if former sowings have failed. The corn harvest now becomes general, and requires the husbandman's careful attention. Lambs not yet separated from their dams, must now be weaned, and put upon the best pastures. Apply manure to fallows, and immediately plough it into the soil.

Sow lettuces, spinach, broccoli, and cauliflowers to stand the winter; and onions, early cabbages, and parsley for the succeeding year. Sow earrots at this time, and they will be ready to draw in the spring. Sow the seed of auriculas, polyanthus, ranunculuses, and anemones.

The feathered tribes are now mute, as it is their moulting time. Insects are very numerous. Among butterflies the Papilio Io, Argus, and the Phleas, are seen in this month. Wasps now become troublesome, and flies abound, and torment both men and animals with their perpetual buzzing.

The gardens abound with lovely flowers, and the fields are also rich with vegetation. The common toad-flax, which is now in full flower, supplies food to a caterpillar, which in the June following produces a beautiful moth called Eupithecia linariata. The common blue passion-flower and the sweet scabious are in bloom. The geranium tribe is now very beautiful: the sun-flower, garden-rod, &c., arrest attention.

Newcastle-upon-Tyne.—High Water daily exactly two hours earlier than Hull.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Saturn appears in the south-east soon after sun-set, and Jupiter is to be seen in the eastern skies at the break of day.

Stack and thatch corn; pull seed hemp; pen in sheep to fatten on turnips; hop picking must now be actively carried on. At the end of the month commence sowing your winter wheat, and gather apples.

Prune vines and cover ripe grapes with bags of paper, and gather elderberries for wine. Sow early York and dwarf cabbages, endive, Welsh onions, spinach, and radishes. Plant fresh celery, and earth up that which was planted before. Sow annual flower-seeds, such as Adonis, larkspur, &c., to come up early in the spring.

Young robins commence their autumnal songs; young willow-wrens, whitethroats, blackcaps, &c., appear very busy in our gardens at the beginning of the month; they take their departure towards the end. Moths and butterflies are yet pretty numerous.

Flora is beginning to withdraw her favours from the earth; still the garden presents a cheerful appearance through the greater part of the month. Among the plants in flower is the Italian pimpernel, golden star-lily, Michaelmas daisy, oval fleabane, golden and pendulous starwort, rose feverfew, amarella, harvest-bell, downy helenium, and others of equal beauty.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Jupiter is now a conspicuous object every clear morning; his brightness is such as renders him distinguishable from every other star. Saturn appears in the evenings, and is near the Moon on the 10th day.

Take up potatoes, and plant and repair quickset hedges. Sow vetches and scour ditches and water-courses. Prepare your farm-yard for the reception of cattle.

Quinces and medlars, now ripe, should be gathered and housed for keeping. Gather ripe barberries for preserving. Radishes may still be sown; also prickly spinach for spring use. Continue to transplant savoys, Jerusalem kale, and any other of this tribe which have a chance of succeeding. Plant at this time the cuttings of gooseberries, currants, and raspberries.

The redwing and fieldfare, which migrated in March, now return; and the ring-ouzel arrives from the Welsh and Scottish mountains, to winter in more sheltered situations. About the middle of the month the common martin disappears; and shortly afterwards, the smallest of the swallow-kind, the sand-martin, and the stone curlew, migrate. The woodcock returns, and is found on our northern coasts.

Dahlias, China asters, Michaelmas daisies, &c., now add an air of cheerfulness to our gardens. On almost every spot where vegetation can be sustained, the mosses are to be found; and in winter, when other plants are decayed, they enliven with verdure the black bosom of nature. They afford protection to the roots and seeds of many delicate vegetables, and by their spongy texture, they retain a moisture which preserves other plants from the withering drought of summer.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Venus now becomes visible in the evenings near the south-western horizon. Saturn appears in the south-east and south. Jupiter may be seen with great elevation in the south at day-break, when his belts and satellites will afford ample amusement for the telescopic observer.

Continue potato harvest, and finish the sowing of winter wheat. Drain soils intended for green crop and fallow. Sheep intended to be fatted should be folded on turnip, and allowed dry fodder. Turn cattle and horses into straw-yards, and spread mole hillocks.

Take up endive, broccoll, and cauliflower, and lay them flat in dry ground. Protect with litter or leaves potatoes or other edible roots left in the ground till wanted for use. Sow a little carrot-seed in a warm place, and cover the roots of newly planted trees with dung.

Larks, chaffinches, and other birds congregate, and insects become scarce. The trees drop their leaves, and the little flowers of autumn die away. The following passage, which seems to allude to the wintry garb of nature, is applicable at this time: "The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed, and withereth away: Sharon is like a wilderness: and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits."—Isaiah xxxlii. 9.

High Water daily at Dover Pier, three hours earlier than at London Bridge.

Astronomical, Agricultural, Horticultural, Zoological, and Botanical Notices.

Venus is now brilliant in the south-west after sun-set, when Saturn is on the meridian. Jupiter is a conspicuous object in the middle of the night. Mars may be seen rising at the break of day, but being now distant, appears only very small.

Kill hogs for bacon, and kill your winter beef. Fell coppices: provide timber for carts, ploughs, &c. Cattle of every description should now be in winter quarters, and receive winter fare.

Protect choice flowers from frost and wet. Tie up endive, cardoons and white beet.

Small birds, especially of the finch tribe, creep near our dwellings for shelter and food. The little wren sings amongst the snow; and our old friend robin is musical in all weathers. Very few insects are now to be seen.

The vegetable kingdom affords but few charms at this season of the year, either in the fields or gardens. Plants serened from cold and placed in sunny windows appear still beautiful. The evergreen trees with their beautiful cones, such as firs and pines, are at this time highly valued; and the different species of everlasting flowers are sought after, for the purpose of decorating the parlour.

THE ECLIPSES OF THE SUN AND MOON IN THE YEAR 1848.

In the present year six eclipses will take place. The first is a partial eclipse of the Sun, on the 5th of March, invisible at Greenwich. The ecliptical conjunction takes place at 17 minutes past 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The second is a total and visible eclipse of the Moon, on the 19th of March, in the evening; the annexed representation of which, for Greenwich, will serve, without sensible error, for the whole kingdom. At the first contact of the Moon with the conical shadow of the Earth, she will be vertical in latitude north  $0^{\circ} 26'$ , and longitude east from Greenwich  $72^{\circ} 6'$ . At the Moon's last contact with the shadow, she will be in the zenith in latitude south  $0^{\circ} 10'$ , and longitude east  $15^{\circ} 45'$ .

The third is a partial eclipse of the Sun on the 3rd of April, in the night, invisible to Great Britain. The ecliptical conjunction takes place at 1 min. past 11 o'clock.

The fourth is another partial eclipse of the Sun, on the 28th of August, also invisible in these parts of the world. The ecliptical conjunction happens at 1 minute past 7 in the evening.

The fifth is a total eclipse of the Moon, on the morning of Wednesday the 13th of September, and partly visible at Greenwich, &c., where the eclipse begins at 31 minutes past 4; total immersion in the shadow at 30 minutes past 5; the Moon sets at 32 minutes after 4; middle of the eclipse 19 minutes past 6; Moon emerges from totality at 8 minutes past 7; and the eclipse ends at 7 minutes after 8. The annexed type is a representation of the Moon as she appears in the eclipse at London and neighbourhood at 5 o'clock.

The sixth and last is a partial eclipse of the Sun on the 27th of September, in the morning, but invisible to us. The ecliptical conjunction occurs at 35 minutes past 9.

TRANSIT OF MERCURY OVER THE SUN.

On the 9th of November a transit of the planet Mercury takes place, visible throughout Great Britain, &c. At Greenwich the transit begins at 2 minutes past 11 in the forenoon, and ends at 27 minutes after 4 in the afternoon, which is about 9 minutes after the setting of the Sun.

NOTE—The Moon's Libration is here supposed to take place in the plane of her orbit; and by the time of the greatest libration of her apparent disc is to be understood the instant at which, to an observer at the centre of the earth, the variation of the disc from its mean state has attained its maximum.

The letters N.E., N.W., &c., indicate the quadrant of the Moon's disc in which the libration takes place, and in which the greatest change of the Moon's surface will become visible.

† Star below the horizon.

† A near approach.

ON NEW AND VARIABLE STARS.—Many of the Stars appear to be affected with variations arising from some peculiarities in their physical construction, or from some great changes going on upon their surface. Several stars have appeared in the heavens for a while, and then vanished. Several, whose positions are given in the ancient catalogues, can no longer be discovered, even by the powerful instruments of modern astronomers; while others are distinctly visible which do not appear to have been observed by the ancients. A few stars have gradually increased in brilliancy; some that have been formerly variable, now shine with steady light; others have been constantly diminishing in brightness; and a considerable number sustain a periodical variation in their lustre. The new star of 1572, which Tycho observed in the constellation Cassiopeia, exhibited very singular changes. Its brightness suddenly became so great, that it exceeded that of Venus and Mercury, and was visible on the meridian during the day. The intensity of its light gradually diminished, and it disappeared sixteen months after its first appearance. The new star in the constellation Serpentarius which was seen in 1603, exhibited phenomena nearly similar, and vanished after having been visible for some months. Astronomers have attempted to explain the remarkable changes, by supposing that portions of the surface of the stars are covered with large black spots, which, during the diurnal rotation of the star, present themselves under various angles, and thus produce a gradual variation in its brilliancy. These spots have been regarded as permanent, while others are of opinion that the luminous surface of the stars is subject to perpetual changes, which sometimes increase their light, and at other times extinguish it. M. Maupertuis has explained these phenomena with less plausibility, by supposing, that in consequence of a rapid rotation about their axis, the stars are reduced to flat circular planes, like mill-tones; and that the inclination of their axes may be varied by the attraction of their surrounding planets. Hence stars of this form will appear more or less brilliant, according to the inclination of their flat side to the eye of the observer. The periodical variation in the light of the stars has also been ascribed to the interposition of the planets which circulate around them; but it is by no means probable that these planets, even if they do exist, are sufficiently large to obstruct any large portion of their light. Even when seen from the earth, the light of our Sun is not sensibly impaired when Mercury and Venus are passing over his disc.

THE HOUSE OF PEERS.

The list of the House of Peers is this year given alphabetically, with the date of their creation, and their town and country residences. In the Almanack for 1844, the Peers were given in the order of precedence in which they rank in the House, together with the Christian and surnames, and title by courtesy of the eldest son. The mottos of the Peers, as emblazoned on their armorial bearings were given in this Almanack for the year 1840, and English translations of the mottos in the Almanack for 1841.

According to the usage of Parliament, when the House appoints a Select Committee, the Lords chosen to serve upon it are named in the order of their rank, beginning with the highest; and so when the House sends a Committee to a conference with the Commons, the Lord highest in rank is called first, and the rest go forth in like order; but when the whole House is called over for any purpose within the House, or to proceed to Westminster Hall, or upon any public solemnity, the call begins invariably with the Junior Baron. The sixteen Representative Peers for Scotland are elected every Parliament; the twenty-eight Representative Peers for Ireland are elected for life.

The date preceeding the title of the Peer is the period of the creation of the title.

A List of all the Fairs in the United Kingdom.

It must be obvious that in a List of Fairs of the magnitude of the following, and many of which are being annually altered, that some inaccuracies may occur; but Dietrichsen and Hannay beg to observe it will be an essential favour conferred upon them if the Town Clerk, Clerks of the Markets, or Lessees of the Tolls, will advise them of any error, or of any alteration that may hereafter take place, but the earlier the information is sent them the more acceptable it will be, on account of the large number of the Almanack that it is requisite to print to be ready for publication, but no correction can be received unless authenticated by the writer's name and address.

In the Lists of Fairs the distance from London and the day upon which the market is held are given (in parentheses) after the name of the place; thus it will be found Beaumaris is 250 miles from London, and that the market day is Saturday, and that the fairs are held upon the 13th of February, Holy Thursday, the 19th of September, and the 19th of December.

Fairs, Cattle Markets, and Trysts in Scotland.

When the appointed day happens to fall on Saturday, Sunday, or Monday, the fair is generally deferred till the Tuesday following. Fairs which are held according to the Old Style, are distinguished by the letters o s placed after the day indicated. In some parts of the country the difference between the Old and New Styles is computed to be eleven, in others twelve days.—the Old being reckoned to be so much later than the New Style.

ADDRESS

DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY avail themselves of the opportunity, on presenting a new Catalogue to the Public, to return thanks to their numerous patrons and friends for the distinguished patronage they have enjoyed during a long series of years, and to assure them that the invariable practice pursued at their establishment, of selling none but genuine Patent Medicines, procured direct from the original Makers, which has given such universal satisfaction, will always be continued, (the deviation from which at many shops where profit is estimated rather than reputation, is frequently a source of disappointment to the customer.)

To their Patrons residing in the Country their gratitude is particularly due, and DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY assure them that the utmost punctuality will always be used in executing their commands; and they beg to observe, that when wishing to remit money for articles ordered, the best mode is to pay the amount to the Post Office in the Locality, when for the charge of three pence, an order payable at the General Post Office in London will be given in exchange, which can be enclosed in a letter with perfect safety as the amount can only be received under the signature of the party it is made payable to; which order, enclosed in a letter with a penny stamp affixed, will be delivered free; to prevent disappointment DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY beg to observe, that they never take in any letters the postage of which is unpaid (coin enclosed in letters is unsafe if sent by the post, and costs more than a Post Office Order.) If a check on a London Banker be sent it may have "RANSOM & Co.," written across the face of it, and it will be safe; Bank Notes should be cut in half, and sent on successive days.

DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY wish to call attention to a practice that persons residing in the Country frequently adopt, of sending Postage Stamps in lieu of money, instead of procuring a Post Office Order. The Public should be made aware, that sending Postage Stamps as payment, is strictly illegal, and subjects the senders to a heavy penalty for each offence. DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY therefore beg to state that they cannot accept Postage Stamps as payment under any consideration. They also inform their correspondents, that those articles which they forward free, are sent at the same price as if bought in their shop, no additional charge being made beyond the cost of the carriage. The immense number of applications soliciting advice, have become of late so very onerous, that D. & H. find it impossible to answer them gratuitously, they therefore beg to say, that no letter asking advice, will in future be replied to, unless the customary fee of a sovereign, or a Post Office Order for that amount, be enclosed.

In conclusion, DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY assure their numerous patrons, that the constant superintendence of the Principal will continue to ensure attention to their commands; and they request, to prevent mistakes, when sending servants or messengers, particular instructions may be given that their shop is Number Sixty-three, Oxford Street, which, since the re-building of their extensive premises, is the largest establishment of the kind in the Metropolis, and the one longest established.

DIETRICHSEN'S CELEBRATED ESSENCE OF RONDELETIA,
FOR THE TOILET OR HANDKERCHIEF,

ORIGINALLY PREPARED FOR THE EXPRESS USE OF

HER MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY, AND THE ROYAL FAMILY, AND NOW ADOPTED AT EVERY EUROPEAN COURT.

An entirely new, elegant, and refreshing Perfume for the Toilet or Handkerchief, superior to any other yet offered for public patronage, retaining its delightful fragrance for days, even after being washed, without smelling faint or unpleasant, (the universal complaint against all other Essences,) five drops of which are equal in power to half an ounce of Lavender.

The lovers of elegant perfumes are solicited (when in London) to call and try it on their handkerchiefs, for which purpose a specimen bottle is always open free, and which handkerchiefs so perfumed, surpass in odour the combined fragrance of the choicest conservatory.

Caution.—The great satisfaction DIETRICHSEN'S RONDELETIA* has given those who have made use of it, and the consequent large sale it obtains, has produced a host of counterfeits. Perfumers, whose appearance of respectability would induce a belief that they would not sell a counterfeit article, are even guilty of it. DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY therefore beg to inform their customers, that their RONDELETIA cannot be obtained genuine in London any where but at their own Shop; and they beg particularly to draw attention to the fact that they are alone the makers of this celebrated Perfume, although several Perfumers at the West-end have been dishonest enough to appropriate the title, and attach it to trashy compositions of their own, possessing little or no fragrance; by which means, parties, who have been deceived by having these fraudulent compositions sold them, have been induced to condemn the original, without being aware of its beauties.

DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY therefore request, that if purchased in the country, it may be obtained of some respectable Perfumer or Bookseller, care being taken to observe that their names and address are on the label, on the side of the bottle, and on the seal.

DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY will deliver Six 3s. 6d. Bottles of the RONDELETIA, free of carriage, to any part of England, upon receipt of a Post-office Order for One Guinea.

DIETRICHSEN'S RONDELETIA SOAP.

This agreeable Toilet Soap, so much approved for softening and beautifying the skin, is perfumed with the admired fragrance of the Essence of RONDELETIA, and has acquired the unqualified approbation and patronage of almost every lady of fashion. For perfuming the Portmanteau or Wardrobe, this Soap is preferable to the perfumed packets, which lose their fragrance, while this retains its odour for months, and may be eventually used as a highly scented Soap. Price One Shilling the Square.

* This was the Perfume so much admired and invariably used by his late Majesty King William the Fourth.

DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY'S

ORIENTAL OIL,

UNEQUALLED FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH OF THE HAIR,

Preserving it from Decay, and restoring it if injured or destroyed, rendering it of a fine soft silky appearance, and sustaining it in curl under the different varieties of atmosphere.

PREPARED AND SOLD BY

DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY,

Perfumers to Her Majesty the Queen, and the Royal Family,

63, OXFORD STREET, LONDON.

ALTHOUGH long possessed of the secret, DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY were precluded from submitting this invaluable addition to the Toilet for public patronage during the lifetime of the individual who divulged it to them, or whose head would inevitably have paid the forfeit of its disclosure, the parties successively employed in its preparation being bound under the most solemn oaths of secrecy; and it had been kept inviolate upwards of three centuries.

A fine Head of Hair has, from the remotest ages, been esteemed the greatest ornament of Female Beauty, and in the rudest and most uncivilized countries great value is set upon a fine Head of Hair. The great care is proverbial, that is paid to the cultivation of the luxuriant tresses of the fair captives of the Harem, and art is there well known to succeed in outrivalling the far-famed beauties of Circassia.

The ORIENTAL OIL has been employed for the purpose during the period of three centuries, and has been found undeviatingly successful in producing that object of all desires, a fine, long, soft, silky, Head of Hair.

DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY do not profess (as is done in some instances) that the properties of the ORIENTAL OIL will produce Hair upon cast-iron; it will do no such thing, but if regularly applied it will re-produce the Hair where nature ordained its existence, if lost from causes to which baldness is referable; it will promote the growth of the Hair generally,

PREVENT ITS FALLING OFF,

sustain it in curl, render it fine and soft as silk, and impart a brilliant lustre, for which it has no equal. The ORIENTAL OIL is a pure,

LIMPID, WHITE, VEGETABLE SUBSTANCE,

unsophisticated with the deleterious articles usually applied to dye Oils red, which are equally injurious to the Skin as to the Hair; and although an oily substance, the

and is therefore free from the general complaint against every other article in present use for the same purpose, including those filthy substances misnamed Bear's Grease, which in many instances are neither more nor less than a composition of Hog's Lard and Whale Oil, submitted to various manipulations to divest them of the fetid animal smell.

The laws of nature throughout creation exhibit one uniform principle; vegetation, it is well-known, derives from the dews of the atmosphere a great portion of its support, and deprive it of which, it soon withers and dies; so the Hair, unless properly nourished, becomes weak and gradually drops off; for minute as a single Hair appears, if examined with a microscope, the human Hair will be found a perfectly hollow tube, with the surface covered with minute and innumerable pores resembling the Skin, and which if allowed to absorb anything of an injurious tendency the Hair is destroyed thereby; thus it will be observed that those persons subject to profuse perspiration, become bald early in life, which is merely caused by the acid caustic nature of the perspiration settling on the Hair and being absorbed, which entirely destroys it; but if the ORIENTAL OIL be daily applied, it will prevent this taking place, and preserve the Hair free from injury; and if regularly applied to the heads of Infants, it entirely removes the scurf, without the assistance of the dandruff combs, an operation so distressing to the heads of Children. It is particularly recommended for the use of Ladies, as, although an oil and imparting to the hair a brilliant lustre, it is not greasy, and will not soil the lightest head-dress.

Price 3s. 6d. in  $\frac{1}{4}$ -Pints, 6s. 6d. in  $\frac{1}{2}$ -Pints, and in Pint Bottles, with Glass Stoppers, 12s. each.

DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY'S ORIENTAL OIL is particularly recommended to the notice of Merchants and Shippers, as well as Families proceeding to the East, being the only article in use for the Hair that will sustain a voyage across the Equator without becoming rancid.

APPROVED ARTICLES FOR THE TOILET.

Sold by DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY, Perfumers to the Queen, 63, Oxford Street, London.

GENUINE RUSSIAN BEAR'S GREASE.

Bear's Grease being supposed to possess the properties of nourishing and preserving the Hair, has induced numerous articles to be sold under the denomination of Bear's Grease, which are neither more nor less than hog's lard and whale oil, submitted to various manipulations to divest them of the offensive smell, whereby purchasers are perpetually disappointed and disgusted with the nauseous effluvia emitted from the hair when the whale oil becomes warm by the parties taking exercise. DIETRICHSEN and HANNAY are convinced that if there is any efficacy in the use of Bear's Grease, it can only be when procured from the animal in its natural state, and having relations resident at Petersburg, are enabled to import it direct from Russia (where it can alone be obtained in any considerable quantity,) and they warrant that the Bear's Grease sold by them is exactly in the same state they receive it from abroad without the addition of any article whatever, but a little perfume to render it more agreeable. It is put up for sale in pots at 1s., 2s. 6d., and 5s., for exportation to warm climates, in glass jars with stoppers, at 4s. and 8s. each.

DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY'S POMADE,

For embellishing the appearance, and promoting the growth of the Hair.

This Pomade is recommended as possessing all the properties that are essential to the elegant appearance of the Hair; it renders it beautifully soft and glossy, and surprisingly encourages its growth; it will not prevent the Hair falling off, as that is a provision of Nature which takes place annually, but it will promote a more rapid growth of the new hair than any other article offered to the Public for Sale. DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY, however, do not recommend its use to Ladies with auburn or light hair, as the application of this Pomade tends to darken the colour.—In Pots at 1s., 2s. 6d., 3s. 6d., and 5s.

FOR THE HEAD-ACHE.

DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY'S CONCENTRATED SMELLING SALTS.

The extreme pungency of these Salts proves them to be in a higher state of concentration than those heretofore in use, with the desirable advantage of being in bottles with air-tight stoppers, which prevent their decay, and are found to be a most useful appendage to the apartments of Invalids. In Cut Bottles, with Glass Stoppers, 2s. each.

Sold in Packets of Three Squares at 1s. 6d., Six Squares, 3s.

DIETRICHSEN'S RONDELETIA SOAP.

This agreeable Toilet Soap, so much approved for softening and beautifying the skin, is perfumed with the admired fragrance of the Essence of Rondeletia, and has acquired the unqualified approbation and patronage of almost every lady of fashion. ## DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY'S ROYAL KENSINGTON SOAP.

This agreeable Soap is strongly recommended as a great improvement on the Old Brown Windsor, lathering more freely, and possessing more detergent qualities, yet leaving the skin soft and pleasant, as it contains much less alkali than the Old Brown Windsor; it is, notwithstanding, sold in Packets at the same price, viz:—Three Squares, One Shilling, Six Squares, Two Shillings.

ASHLEY COOPER'S BOTANICAL PURIFYING PILLS.

ESTABLISHED by upwards of forty years' experience, are prescribed by most of the eminent Physicians and Surgeons in London, and are always administered at several public Hospitals, as the only certain remedy for Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and all other forms of Venereal Disease, in either sex, curing in a few days, by one small Pill for a dose, with ease, secrecy, and safety. Their operation is imperceptible; they do not require the slightest confinement, or any alteration of diet, beverage, or exercise. They do not disagree with the stomach, nor cause any offensive smell to the breath, as is the case with all other medicines in use for these complaints, and after a cure effected by the use of these Pills, the parties will not experience any return of the complaint, as generally occurs after taking Balsam of Copaiba, and other drugs of the like nature, which only possessing a local action, merely suppressed the complaint for a time without eradicating it from the constitution, and the Patients on undergoing a little more fatigue than ordinary, find all the symptoms return, and that they are suffering under the complaint as much as at first, and are at last constrained to have recourse to these Pills as the only certain cure. They are likewise a most efficient remedy for Pimpled Faces, Scurf, Scorbutic Affections, and all Eruptions of the Skin. Captains of vessels should make a point of always taking them to sea, their unrivalled efficacy in curing Scurvy being known throughout the world.

The following letter, selected from numerous other professional recommendations forwarded to the Proprietor, when he first offered these Pills to the Public, may be considered interesting.

From that eminent Surgeon, the late Joshua Brookes, Esq., F.R.S., Professor of Anatomy, &c. &c.

DEAR COOPER,

Theatre of Anatomy, Blenheim-street.

I have tried your Pills in numerous instances, and my candid opinion is, that they are a most improved system of treatment for those peculiar complaints for which you recommend them, curing with rapidity, and with a certainty that I had never before witnessed; but what I consider their most invaluable property is, that they entirely eradicate the complaint, and never leave those distressing secondary symptoms (that harass the patient for life) which usually arise after the use of those uncertain remedies, Mercury and Copaiba. I think you cannot fail to have a very large sale for them.

Believe me, yours, very truly,

JOSHUA BROOKES.

"Dr. BORRAGAN presents his compliments to Messrs. Hannay and Co., and writes to say, that having for some years prescribed Ashley Cooper's Pills to his patients, with the most successful results, he feels called upon to add his testimony to their great efficacy in curing sexual diseases, and they deserve well of the public and the profession. The Purifying Drops are also a most invaluable Anti-Scorbutic Medicine. Dr. B. has found them to be a decided specific for those eruptions of the skin which frequently appear at the rise and fall of the year."

GENTLEMEN,

London, ——— Street, June 12th, 1833.

I cannot express the feelings which induce me to forward you my name in addition to those who have gratefully returned their thanks for a complete cure of Gonorrhœa, by the use of Ashley Cooper's Botanical Pills. I beg merely to say, that I have experienced an entire cure from the small quantity of six boxes of those invaluable Pills, of a very urgent and distressing species of the above disorder, and my gratitude shall ever be evinced, in my strongest recommendation of them to all I may hereafter meet, suffering in the same manner. If this recommendation can be of the least service to you, I beg you will accept of it, merely reminding you that, if made public, my residence may be omitted.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your much obliged and very obedient Servant,

JOHN HARRISON.

HEALTH RESTORED AND PRESERVED BY DYSON'S DIGESTIVE ANTIBILIOUS PILLS.

A Specific for the Prevention and Cure of Disorders of the Digestive Organs, (with the train of Calamities attending thereon,) for Bilious and Nervous Diseases.

It is an established fact, that almost all the diseases to which the human frame is subject, owe their origin to some derangements of those parts of the body usually denominated "Digestive Organs." These consist of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels, and their duty is respectively to receive the food, to prepare it for its especial purpose—a supply of new blood to nourish the system—and when this is effected, to carry off the useless residue. It must therefore be evident to the most ordinary mind, that if any of these operations be impeded, derangement of function must take place; there will either be Sickness of Stomach, accompanied with an inordinate secretion of Bile, Relaxation of the Bowels, or Costiveness; these give rise to Head-aches, Palpitation of the Heart, Cough, and Difficulty of Breathing, General Fever, and a long catalogue of diseases not usually described, but well known under the expressive terms "Bilious" and "Nervous." To prevent the occurrence of these maladies is an undoubted desideratum, but to cure them when existing, is a matter of much greater importance. Both, however, may be effected by remedies that will stimulate the organs to a proper performance of their functions—thus: to give tone to the Stomach; to excite the Liver to a healthy secretion of Bile; and to regulate the action of the Bowels. It is allowed by all that "Prevention is better than cure;" to preserve the Digestive Organs, therefore, in a healthy working condition, is a sure way to prevent disease. To effect this, a dose of the Digestive Pills, taken once or twice a week, is all that is necessary; and when disease has already set in, the more frequent use of them will perform a cure. Dyson's Digestive Pills are adapted to all ages and both sexes. The most delicate females may take them under any circumstances. They are sold in boxes at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. each, by appointment of the Proprietors, at Dietrichsen and Hannay's Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, London, only, whose name and address is printed in the Government Stamp round each box, without which they are not genuine.

DR. DE SANCTIS'S
RHEUMATIC AND GOUT PILLS,
PREPARED BY BARTHOLOMEW DE SANCTIS, M.D.
LICENTIATE of the ROYAL COLLEGE of PHYSICIANS, LONDON

THE unfailing efficacy of DR. DE SANCTIS'S Pills for the cure of Gout and Rheumatism, has been tried in an extensive Practice, and their uniform success fully warrants Dr. De Sanctis in offering them for general use, as a specific, and the only one, for the cure of Gout, Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, Lumbago, &c.

Suffice it to say that these Pills do not contain Colchicum or any other deleterious Drug; they are perfectly innocent, and may be administered to the most delicate individuals. The Dose is one Pill every eight hours until cured: the first dose will begin to mitigate the most violent attack within four hours of its administration; and a Patient writhing under the most malignant attack of Gout or Rheumatism, may rely on its removal within forty-eight hours.

Dr. De Sanctis lays before the Public the following letters from some of his Patients, which speak a higher eulogium of the efficacy of the Medicine than any representation he could make himself.

“Cheltenham.”

“Dear Sir,—When your name was mentioned to me by a friend, I certainly was sceptical of your being able to afford me any more relief than such as I had before obtained; but your most invaluable Pills have certainly cured me, and had I not obtained them, I as certainly should have been before this a corpse. I have been for five and forty years a martyr to the horrid complaint of Gout, which in sufferings must be equal to the torments of hell, and during this long period I have tried every Remedy that money could procure or the most eminent Medical talent could suggest. I have taken Colchicum in every form, and in very large doses, both with and without Opium, but unfortunately found the more Medicine I took the more frequently the attacks returned, increasing in violence every time, and each attack becoming of longer duration (frequently of late from six weeks to two months), the most powerful remedies having at last failed to exert any influence on the complaint. The delay that occurred in consequence of my having to write to you ere I could obtain the Pills, allowed the complaint to increase more than it had ever done before, for both my legs, which of late years have been attacked simultaneously, and swelled to the size of my head, on the last occasion swelled up my thighs, and but for the timely arrival of your Pills no doubt would have got into my Stomach, and then, as our immortal poet says, “In a coffin I’d popp’d off,” instead of being here to return you my most grateful, sincere, and heartfelt thanks; the effect produced by your most inestimable Pills was wonderful; in a short time after taking the first dose I fancied myself easier, but made up my mind to refer it only to a false confidence; but my astonishment was excessive when at the end of six hours I found the swelling begin to diminish, and in five days I found myself completely cured, and without any of those symptoms of lassitude and debility being left behind, which have always lasted for many days after every previous attack for the last ten years. I am, Dear Sir,

“Your most sincere Well-wisher, and Resuscitated Patient,

“TO DR. DE SANCTIS.”

“WM. LAMBERT.”

“Sir,—I think that, without a single exception, I have suffered more from Gout than any other individual ever endured, the pain has been so intense (without the slightest diminution) for three and four weeks at a time, that I have frequently been obliged to have a nurse by me day and night, striking my foot with a stick, to moderate the pain by inflicting another, until I have sometimes had my foot so black that it has not recovered its colour for months; at the commencement of the last attack I procured some of your Pills, and to my very great satisfaction they immediately relieved me and prevented its further inroad, and I have now been free from it for eighteen months.

“I am, yours very truly,

“TO DR. DE SANCTIS.”

“FRANCIS HEATH.”

“Brighton.”

“Sir,—The wonderful efficacy of your wonder-working medicine is almost incredible; fifteen years ago I was attacked with acute Rheumatism, from having slept in a damp bed while travelling in Flanders, the torture arising from which has been of the most agonising description, for although at intervals I have been free from pain (had it been incessant I must have put an end to my existence) I have been more or less subject to it ever since, and when the attacks came on, I felt as though I was being torn asunder. In fifteen hours from the first dose of your Pills (but mind I took two of them) I was materially relieved, and at the expiration of a week I had not the slightest trace of my enemy left; as you decline to let me have the prescription in consequence of your intention of introducing it as a Patent Medicine, you are free to publish this communication if you think proper, for the Pills deserve to be generally known.

“I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

“TO DR. DE SANCTIS.”

“W. WEST.”

“Dublin.”

“Sir,—Your Rheumatic and Gout Pills are certainly a most efficacious Medicine; I have been a severe sufferer from Cold Rheumatism, which the Faculty have told me was always difficult of cure; it certainly has been difficult with me, for, for fifteen years, I have fluctuated from bad to worse and worse to better. I have placed myself in the hands of twenty-five Medical Men who pursued as many different modes of treatment without any permanent effect; a fortunate circumstance introduced some of your Pills to me a few months since, which entirely cured me, and thank God I have not had a relapse since; I therefore think it but justice to you, to offer you my testimony of their efficacy, and I recommend all Gouty and Rheumatic subjects never to be without them. Yours, &c.

“TO DR. DE SANCTIS.”

“JACOB JOHNSON.”

“MR. WENTWORTH presents his compliments to DR. DE SANCTIS and writes to say that he considers his Pills a harmless but most efficacious remedy, and shall have great pleasure in recommending them to the notice of his friends; the particular complaint Mr. Wentworth took them for was Rheumatic Gout in the right hand, which he is very subject to, but which he finds DR. DE SANCTIS'S Pills immediately remove.”

“MISS WILKINS has been entirely cured of a Rheumatic affection in the hip, which Miss W. had long been a sufferer from, by the use of DR. DE SANCTIS'S Pills, after several other remedies she tried had failed.”

“MR. SMITH'S compliments to DR. DE SANCTIS and begs to communicate to him that he found the most speedy relief from the use of his Pills, and was entirely cured in three days.”

DR. DE SANCTIS'S PILLS are Sold in Boxes at 2s. 9d. each, by HANNAY and DIETRICHSEN, 63, OXFORD STREET, LONDON, who will forward a Box, free of carriage, to any part of the Kingdom, on receipt of a Post-Office Order for Three Shillings.

By the Queen's Royal Letters Patent.

NEW PORTABLE

PATENT CONTINUOUS-STREAM ENEMA,

Contained in a small Mahogany Case, that may be carried in the Pocket,

PRICE THIRTY SHILLINGS.

THE use of Warm Water being frequently recommended as an Injection, for the relief of Constipation, it becomes a matter of moment to be provided with an Instrument by which, in case of necessity, the operation may be performed with facility. MR. DIETRICHSEN having long paid considerable attention to arrive at an improved method of raising and forcing fluids, has succeeded in producing and Patenting the important principle upon which the above most perfect Enema is constructed, being a Double Action, ejecting a continuous stream of water by both the upward and downward stroke of the Piston, without throwing air into the bowel, or water into the face of the operator, as is the case with all others. MR. DIETRICHSEN'S New Patent Continuous-Stream Enema has received the unqualified approbation of all the Eminent Medical Practitioners in London who have examined it. Travellers will find the possession of one of these instruments frequently the means of saving life during a journey through the Desert. The flexible tube being made of silvered wire will not corrode and break off the mounts, as those of other makers are liable to. MR. DIETRICHSEN'S Patent Enemas are made of turned brass, beautifully tinned inside to prevent corrosion, they are so simple that they can be taken to pieces and wiped, if used for oil or gruel, and put together again without being put out of order.

D. & H. will forward one of these Instruments enclosed in a deal packing case, carriage free, to any part of the Kingdom, on receipt of a Post Office Order for Thirty-three Shillings.

To prevent the public being deceived with counterfeits of this invaluable Instrument it can only be obtained at the Patentees' own shop, 63, Oxford Street, London

DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY'S
 CONCENTRATED DECOCTION,
 OR
 FLUID EXTRACT OF THE FINEST
JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA.

ITS most efficient and agreeable preparation of that well known and valuable alterative, Jamaica Sarsaparilla, is prepared by a peculiar and scientific method, suggested many years ago by our respected predecessor, that eminent Chymist the late SIR SAMUEL HANNAY, Bart., by which the whole of the aromatic and volatile parts are preserved, which in the common decoction are dissipated in the boiling; and the experience of many years has fully established the reputation of this medicine as containing more of the virtues of the root from which it is procured than the decoction made in the ordinary way over the fire. It has been strongly recommended at various periods by Sir William Fordyce, Dr. Hunter, Mr. Pearson, Dr. Graham, Dr. Hancock, Sir Benjamin Brodie, and other eminent Medical Practitioners. Professor Green, of King's College, when Lecturing on Sarsaparilla, said "It increases the tone and vigour of the system, without quickening the pulse; produces increase of tone, without increase of action. The good effects of this Medicine are so obvious in many cases that it was supposed at one time to possess a specific effect over many diseases. Amongst the remedies we possess, I should say it stands first; and there are but few good practitioners in London who do not attribute much efficacy to it. Experience warrants my saying that you will effect your object in completely restoring patients labouring under these affections* by the exhibition of this remedy." It is sold in Bottles at 4s. 6d., 7s., and 12s. each.

* The symptoms alluded to are, nocturnal pains in the limbs, scrofulous enlargement of the glands, cutaneous eruptions, chronic rheumatism, painful enlargements of the joints, membranous nodes, &c.; and in freeing the system from what may be termed the sequelæ of a Mercurial Course, its beneficial effects have been exemplified in a powerful and extraordinary degree.

It sweetens the blood, improves a bad habit of body, and by giving the cutaneous vessels a healthy and regular action, it removes that disposition to Erysipelatous Inflammation, and those affections resembling it, from which so many persons, periodically suffer; and when taken in the Spring and Fall of the Year, as an alterative medicine, will be found to impart that Stamina to the Constitution, which is indicated by firmness of flesh, regularity of appetite, and freshness of complexion.

DR. GARTHSHORE'S
TONIC INVIGORATING RESTORATIVE PILLS

For Nervous Weakness and Debility, Low Spirits, Hypochondriac and Hysterical Disorders, Faintings, &c., &c.

THESE Pills prepared from an invaluable prescription of that eminent Physician, the late celebrated DR. GARTHSHORE, are singularly efficacious in disorders and indispositions where the strength is impaired, where the viscera and other parts are too much relaxed and deprived of their proper tone, exerting their influence over the whole nervous system, promoting and restoring the secretion of nature into proper order, and re-establishing good health, however much debilitated; whether arising from natural causes, the consequence of hot climates, immoderate use of tea, or ardent spirits, sedentary employment, improper administration of mercury, dissipated pleasure, indulgence, solitary vice, intense study, grief, disappointment, anxiety of mind, and other causes; gradually and agreeably relieving and curing those distressing symptoms of lowness of spirits, nervous debility, loss of appetite, wind on the Stomach, swimming of the Head, palpitation of the Heart, impotence, barrenness, inward decay, muscular imbecility, seminal weakness, atrophy, defect of memory, impaired vision, trembling of the hands, oppression of the breast, sleepless nights, with dreams and horrors of the mind, and other symptoms of those disorders, which, Proteus-like, are continually varying, and upon every fresh attack of which, the Patients imagine themselves assailed by disorders that they never felt before, which not only affect the body, but frequently the mind, rendering the party fretful and peevish, putting them in continual fear of death; in short, nervous disorders, from whatever cause arising, give way before the effects of this inestimable Medicine, and all that train of symptoms that so dreadfully affect the human frame, will in a short time be succeeded by cheerfulness and lasting health.

Dr. GARTHSHORE'S Pills are sold in Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d. each (the 4s. 6d. Box contains the same quantity as six Boxes at 1s. 1½d.), by appointment, at Messrs. Dietrichsen & Hannay's Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, the corner of Wells Street, London, who will forward a 1s. 9d. Box, free of carriage, to any part of the Kingdom, on receipt of a Post-office Order for 3s. 1d., or 4s. 6d. Box, on receipt of a Post-office Order for 4s. 10d.

DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY'S OPHTHALMIC OINTMENT,

THIS invaluable Ointment generally succeeds in effectually curing (in the space of a fortnight or three weeks) those diseases of the eye attended with sore eyelids and loss of the eyelash, frequently the after effects of the measles, even when other remedies have failed, and when some of the first Oculists in London have declared a cure hopeless. DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY having long and extensively used this Ointment with the most favourable results, recommend it strenuously to their Customers and the Public as the best remedy for the above class of disease of the eye that has ever been brought forward for sale. It possesses an advantage peculiar to itself, viz., that it does not cause any smarting or other uneasiness not even at the moment of application, so much so, that no child will resist its application. If children, who are subject to styes on the eyelid, have a little of this Ointment applied to the eyelid for a few nights at going to rest, it will entirely remove the sty, and the patient will not be subject to them as before. It is sold in Pots at 2s. 9d. each, or will be forwarded carriage free, to any part of the Kingdom, in return for a Post-Office Order for 3s. 3d. The following are testimonials of the effect of the Ointment, from individuals who have made use of it.

*Regent Street, Westminster,
April 29, 187.*

SIR,—After suffering dreadfully from a severe attack of acute Ophthalmia in both my eyes, attended with excessive pain and restlessness, I am again perfectly restored to sight by the use of your Ointment, which immediately gave me ease and rest, and in less than a fortnight most effectually removed the complaint. I am convinced the more general knowledge of your Ointment for Diseases of the Eye would be attended with the greatest good to the public, and you are at liberty to refer at all times to my case, as a proof of the benefit which may be expected from its application in similar attacks.

I remain, dear Sir,
Yours very truly,
F. RICHMAN.

SIR,—Being aware of the extraordinary efficacy of your Eye Ointment, I provided myself with a few Boxes on my visit to Brighton last Christmas, in order that, should I meet with any objects afflicted with Diseased Eyes, I might have the opportunity of alleviating their sufferings. I met with two cases, and the decided and speedy good effects arising from the application of your Ointment induces me to send you the particulars.

The first case was that of Margaret Lindridge aged twenty-two years, whose eyes had been bad about twelve years; the Inflammation of the lids was extensive, and the Eyelash entirely removed, and attended with constant irritation and discharge. This woman had been under numerous medical men, and was considered incurable. The Ointment was applied for about a month, and effected a most complete cure. This was last Christmas, and the disease has in no respect re-appeared; the Eyelash is restored, and she is now in that respect perfectly well.

The second case was almost miraculous. The patient, John Hill, being a man upwards of sixty-seven years of age, and he did not recollect the time when his eyes were not bad. This man had had every advice. Your Ointment was applied, and the result was a perfect cure in about a month.

I cannot conclude these representations without expressing to you my entire confidence in the unerring good effects of this remedy.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
ANNA FEATHERSTONHAUGH.

SIR,—I have the pleasure to inform you, that the Box of Ophthalmic Ointment has completely cured the eyes of a young Lady of this place. Her eyes had been violently affected with Inflammation of the Lids, for more than ten years. She had tried various remedies, and had been under the care of many eminent Medical Practitioners, without any benefit. It is now gratifying to see her, her appearance is so much improved.

I should feel obliged by your sending me, by the first conveyance, a few boxes of the Ointment: there are two or three persons waiting for it.

I remain,
Yours respectfully,
ELIZ. HIGHMAN.

SIR,—Our daughter being perfectly restored to sight in a few weeks, by the use of your Remedies for Diseases of the Eye, after suffering severely from Acute Ophthalmia during four months, two of which she attended at the Eye Infirmary, Warwick Street, without receiving any sensible benefit, we beg to acknowledge our decided opinion of the powerful efficacy of these preparations, and do strongly recommend their use to all persons afflicted with inflammation in the Eyes.

We remain, sir,
Your very obliged Servants,
JOSEPH & MARGARET ROOM.

*Belvidere Road, Lambeth,
April 18, 1837.*

GENTLEMEN,—I have the pleasure of communicating to you a most successful case of cure effected by the use of your Ophthalmic Ointment. My daughter, now fifteen years of age, has suffered from nine months old (at which time she had the measles) with sore eyes, of such a description as to be pitiable to contemplate; much light or the least wind so distressed her, that she was obliged to keep them bandaged up. She had been under the treatment of every respectable Oculist in London and I had had most of the private remedies on sale applied, but without success, all of which rendered her the worse, from the torturing effect they had, but which was not the case with your Ointment, which did not cause any smarting; and I am happy to say, by continuing its use for three weeks, she was completely cured. I consider the Ointment to be of so valuable a description, that you will be at liberty to publish this communication if you think proper.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,
W. SHERWOOD,
Carpenter and Builder.

MRS BENNETT, of 28, James Street, Commercial Road East, had suffered from severe Eyelids (left by the measles) for upwards of eighteen years; was entirely cured by using one pot of DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY'S Ophthalmic Ointment, and has not experienced the least inconvenience since.

SAMUEL THOMAS SEYMOUR, 2, Castle Court, call-boy at the Princess's Theatre, 13 years old, had a speck on the cornea of the left eye, both eyelids sore, and entirely lost the eyelashes, arising in the first instance from severe cold; was cured in three weeks by the use of DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY'S Ophthalmic Ointment.

FREDERICK EARL, St. Clement's Danes School, 15 years of age, had been subject to sore Eyelids and loss of Eyelashes from infancy; at 10 years old was affected with Speck, and total loss of sight of the right eye; was entirely cured by using the Ointment for three months, during which time the Speck was entirely taken up, and the vision completely restored.

August, 1843.

March, 1844.

GENTLEMEN,—In reply to your enquiries, I have used your Ophthalmic Ointment, in several severe cases of inflamed Eyelids; also, in some instances, of Speck on the cornea, and have always found it successful; in addition to its effects being certain, I find it does not cause the least uneasiness or smarting; I can therefore recommend its use in such cases with the utmost confidence.

Your obedient Servant,
T. WRIGHT
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons.

Sold only at DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY'S Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, London, whose Names and Address are Printed in the Government Stamp affixed to each Pot.

C. S. CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS,

FOR THE CURE OF

Scrofula, Scurvy, Leprosy, Scorbatic Affections, Eruptions and Pimples on the Face, Swellings or Ulceration in the Neck, Sore Breasts, and all disorders attended with painful Swellings, or with Morbid and Irritating Eruptions of the Skin, Open Wounds, and Sores, etc.

Sold Wholesale and Retail by HANNAY and DIETRICHSEN,
Chemists and Druggists to the Royal Family, 63, Oxford Street, London

The daily increasing celebrity of CHEDDON'S PILLS is the most positive proof of their efficacy, and they are now adopted by the first Practitioners for the Cure of the above Disorders, which are well known to have baffled the most consummate Medical Skill, and which have hitherto always been considered incurable.

Of all diseases which affect the human body, there are none more severe, more dangerous, or more painful, than those of Scrofula, Scurvy, Leprosy, and Scorbatic Affections, with the endless variety of morbid and irritating eruptions of the skin concomitant thereto; indeed, there is scarcely a family in the universe, either rich or poor, that is not directly or indirectly affected with Scrofula, or where its latent effects are not occasionally visible, being apparently the visitation denounced against succeeding generations, and for which the faculty have hitherto considered there were no means of cure, and its increase to the present alarming extent is the consequence. Look around you and see how many individuals, in the prime of life, are daily falling victims to this complaint! who might have been so easily cured by one medicine, and by that medicine alone, namely, C. S. CHEDDON'S FAMED HERBAL TONIC PILLS, which have been the means of restoring hundreds to perfect health, after many of the most Scientific Medical Men in London, and elsewhere, have said nothing more could be done for them, and who were left to drag on a miserable existence from day to day until death should terminate their sufferings; many of these persons have been discharged from the Public Hospitals, and some from her Majesty's service, as incurable, and in a short space of time have been entirely cured by this Invaluable Medicine.

How many individuals there are seen daily with Scrofulous Tumours on different parts of the Body, Eruptions in the Skin, and Scrofulous Sores, which to every eye, is a great disfigurement; for these complaints the most eminent of the Faculty have tried nearly every remedy, without success—as a last resource, they recommend the sea side, which frequently increases the virulence of the disease! if it does otherwise, it only allays its progress for a short time, when it generally breaks out in a much more malignant form than it had previously appeared, and death ensues as the inevitable consequence!

The extraordinary efficacy of C. S. CHEDDON'S Invaluable Pills have been repeatedly proved in the most inveterate cases of Scrofula and Cutaneous Diseases, after many eminent Physicians and Surgeons had pronounced them incurable, and after numerous Surgical Operations had been performed without success, and, in many instances, after life was despaired of by the medical attendants.

To individuals suffering under attacks of GOUT, RHEUMATISM, or LUMBAGO, CHEDDON'S PILLS will be found to afford almost immediate and permanent relief, and those who are constitutionally predisposed to suffer from these tormenting complaints will find that by having occasional recourse to their use they will ward off their frequent attack; for it has been found that persons previously subject to four, five, or more attacks yearly, have by the use of this medicine, reduced them to two, and to one, and feel assured that by persevering they will eventually remove it entirely from the constitution.

Mr. CHEDDON, feeling convinced of the importance of this Medicine to the interest and welfare of society, recommends no family to be without it, and assures them that there is not any ingredient of an injurious nature in their composition, and that their use cannot be detrimental in the slightest degree to the most delicate constitution, and Children of the most tender age may take them in half the usual quantities. It is not requisite to make any alteration in Diet during their use, or for the Patient to neglect his usual occupation.

Mr. CHEDDON submits for Public Inspection the following Copies of Letters received by him from eminent Physicians and Surgeons, who are in the habit of prescribing his Pills; also from individuals who have derived relief and cure from this Inestimable Medicine, the peculiar properties of which are, that it expels disease from the human frame, without having any visible action on the body, or purging in the slightest degree, but by its benign and certain influence, increases the Appetite, invigorates the Constitution, re-establishes Good Health, and literally creates the animal economy anew. They may be taken under any circumstances by the most delicate individual, without the slightest apprehension from taking cold, or the least necessity for the Patient to refrain from pursuing his usual avocations, nor is the slightest alteration in diet requisite, only observing to adopt that which the palate relishes.

They are sold in Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each, Wholesale and Retail, at HANNAY and DIETRICHSEN'S General Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, London, whose name and address will, in future, be printed in the government stamp affixed to each Box, without which they will not be genuine; persons in the country who experience any difficulty in obtaining them, can procure them direct by writing to HANNAY and DIETRICHSEN, 63, Oxford Street, London, who will forward a 1s. 1½d. Box free of Carriage to any part of the Kingdom, in return for 1s. and a four-penny piece, sent post free: a 2s. 9d. Box, free for a Post Office Order of 3s. 4d.; a 4s. 6d. Box, free for a Post Office Order of 5s.; and an 11s. Box, free to any part for a Post Office Order for 12s.

"To Mr. CHEDDON,

"Bond Street, Feb. 10, 1834.

"SIR,—I return you my sincere thanks for the cure your Medicine has lately performed upon me; I had been suffering from severe pains in my back and loins and left side for many months, and had become much emaciated; apparently my whole frame was entirely worn out; from having been above fourteen stone I sunk down to nine and a half, when I began to take your Pills, which I found relief from after taking a few days, and by continuing them they restored me to perfect health. I consider my life was entirely saved by your Medicine; three Medical Gentlemen, whom I had the greatest confidence in, rather advised me not to trouble myself with Medicine, as they considered it perfectly useless. You are at liberty to make what use you think proper of this.

"I remain, your obedient servant,

"SAMUEL DAWSON."

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR.

dose is sufficient to convince the most scrupulous of the invaluable and unfailing efficacy of MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Shortness of Breath, Asthma, Incipient Consumption, Difficulty of Breathing, Huskiness, and unpleasant Tickling in the Throat, Night Cough, with pain on the Chest, &c.

The paramount superiority of this Medicine over every other Medicine in use, for the cure of the above complaints, only requires to be known to prove the passport to its being ere long universally made use of for the cure of every description of Pulmonary Affection.

PREPARED BY THOMAS MULREADDY, LIVERPOOL; AND SOLD ONLY AT DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY'S PATENT MEDICINE WAREHOUSE, 63, OXFORD STREET, CORNER OF WELLS STREET, LONDON.

To prevent spurious imitations of this Medicine, it is requisite to observe it has the name and address of my Agents, "HANNAY AND DIETRICHSEN, 63, Oxford Street," printed in white letters at one end of, and forming a part of the Government Stamp, pasted round the outside of the wrapper of every Bottle, and without which it is not genuine.

To those who are unacquainted with the invaluable properties of MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR, the following letters will exhibit its efficacy:

MY DEAR SIR,

You most assuredly deserve the thanks of society for presenting it with such an invaluable cure for Coughs. For years past, during the winter months, and always on foggy days, have I heretofore been compelled to confine myself a close and solitary prisoner in my library, to prevent the possibility of being tempted to join in conversation, the excitement of which always produced such violent paroxysms of Coughing, that I have been in constant dread of sudden dissolution by bursting a blood-vessel; at the commencement of the present season by your kind liberality I commenced taking the Medicine you sent, and after I had taken three bottles I could breathe as vigorously as in the early part of life, and I now believe that I was then perfectly cured—a cure not to have been expected at my advanced age—80 years;—but I persevered in taking it until I had consumed the whole twelve bottles. Your situation in life I know places you beyond the necessity of preparing an article of the kind for sale, but it must and shall be done, and if you neglect to do it, my sincere wish is, that you may be absolutely lugged out of your retirement, and compelled to provide it in quantities equal to the boundless waters, and you may rely upon it, that I, a locomotive proof of its wonderful power, will spare neither time nor trouble to promulgate its efficacy, until you will find your cottage attacked by myriads of my former fellow sufferers, for a share of your bounty, and I myself now apply for the first, trusting that your goodness will not suffer you to refuse me a pretty considerable quantity, and I promise to distribute it most usefully; whenever you have made it up for sale, send me one thousand bottles.

Liverpool, Dec., 1834.

Ever your sincere well-wisher,
W. HUGHES.

T. MULREADDY, ESQ.

RESPECTED FRIEND,

Thou hast my sincere thanks for thy Samaritan present; thy Medicine hath had the promised effect, and completely cured my trying Cough; if thou wilt let me have a quantity in a large bottle, I will in return enter thy name to any Charitable Institution thou wilt fix on.

Chester, 12 Mo., 1834

T. MULREADDY, ESQ.

Thine,
JACOB ROBERTS.

DEAR SIR,—The effect of your Medicine in curing our children of the Hooping Cough, has been like magic, for which I, and Mrs. Wilson in particular, return our grateful acknowledgements, and the little W.'s shall not fail ere long to thank you in person. Rely on it, in our family you will be styled Doctor in future.

Believe me, yours, very sincerely,
J. WILSON.

DEAR SIR,

Manchester, Jan 2nd, 1835.

The Cough Medicine you sent me is certainly a most surprising remedy; six days ago I was unable to breathe, unless with difficulty, attended with much coughing, which always kept my soft palate relaxed, and in a state of irritation, and the more I coughed, the worse it was, and it, in its own turn, produced a constant excitement of coughing. I am now about, to the wonder of my friends and neighbours, entirely free from Cough; one small phial of your inestimable medicine ten years back, would have saved me not less than £3000, in medical fees; but it would have done more, it would have saved my having had to swallow from time to time upwards of a hog'shead of their nauseous, and as they all proved, useless drugs. The agreeable flavour of the medicine is a great recommendation; I think you ought to put it up, and sell it to the public, and if any one should doubt its efficacy, refer them to me. I shall have the pleasure of being with you in a few days, when I shall press on your consideration the propriety of making it up for sale: it would prove an enormous fortune for your grand-children. If you make up your mind to do so, as I am what the world styles an idle man, you may enlist me in your service, in any way that you think would be useful. But I should advise you to place the management in the hands of one of the great Medicine houses in London; Hannay's in Oxford Street, are being advertised in all the papers here as wholesale agents for Rainsbottom's Corn Solvent—which, by the bye, my girls all say is really a cure,—and many other medicines. I should say this would be a very good house, Oxford Street being one of the most public situations in London. All join me in kind remembrance to yourself and Mrs. M.

THOS. MULREADDY, ESQ.

Believe me, yours, very truly,
ROBERT GRANT

MR. MULREADDY begs to observe that to publish copies of the whole of the letters he has received of the above tenor, would require several volumes; the selection here presented he considers quite sufficient, but begs to say that upon trial of his COUGH ELIXIR, it will give itself the best recommendation. It will be sold by his appointment, wholesale and retail, by his Agents, Messrs. DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY, 63, Oxford Street, London; and retail by every respectable Vendor of Medicines, in the Country, in Bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 3d., and 4s. 6d. each.

Mr Mulreaddy desires to return his sincere thanks to the numerous Medical Gentlemen, who, having tried his Elixir, recommended it to their Patients as the best remedy for the lingering and troublesome Cough that was so prevalent during the winter of 1836, with all those who had suffered from Influenza: but more especially to those Gentlemen who, with great liberality, have forwarded him certificates of its efficacy, with permission to publish them, but which, in deference to the general wishes of the Profession, he refrains from doing.

 Purchasers should observe that it is wrapped up in white paper, on which, in a blue label with white letters, is printed the words, "MULREADDY'S COUGH ELIXIR," prepared by THOMAS MULREADDY, Liverpool, and sold, by his appointment, at HANNAY & Co's. Patent Medicine Warehouse, 63, Oxford Street, London, by whom Country Booksellers and Druggists are supplied, at the usual Trade Prices.

"TO PREVENT IS BETTER THAN TO CURE."

HANNAY'S
INFALLIBLE PREVENTIVE;
OR,
ANTI-VENEREAL SPECIFIC,

Discovered in the Year 1750, by that Eminent Chemist the late

SIR SAMUEL HANNAY, BARONET, M.P.,

Which has never failed in a single instance to prevent the communication of the above highly Injurious Disorder if used as directed, within eight hours after an impure connexion, has now stood the test of Eighty Years' trial with increased and increasing honour to its discoverer, and cannot fail to render his name Immortal to the remotest ages, and upon whom the British Parliament proposed to confer a National Grant for having produced the greatest benefit that Science had ever bestowed on mankind, but which, upon the question being put by the Chairman, he rose, and magnanimously declined accepting.

Long experience in every part of the civilized World having firmly and incontrovertibly established the reputation of HANNAY'S SPECIFIC, its universal adoption throughout the Navy and all the Camps and Garrisons during the Continental War, and its undiminished celebrity both at home and abroad, down to the present period, is its best eulogium, and renders it unnecessary for the Proprietors to make further observation than insert the following document, which is a copy of SIR SAMUEL'S Original Address to the Public on the Baronet's first Promulgating his discovery to the World, the contents of which the test of time has declared unimpeached.

"TO THE PUBLIC,

London, October 7, 1762.

"Nothing but the absolute certainty arising from the experience of years could induce me to put my name to an invention, which, from its very great importance to mankind, may raise doubts in the minds of some, with regard to its efficacy. But the many, various, and undoubted proofs, which have arisen from experiments, made to ascertain the Preventive Powers of what I now offer to the Public, enable me to pledge myself to the world, that it is Infallible in its operation, and, instead of its being hurtful, Highly Friendly to the constitution. My profession having led me to researches of this kind, I think myself extremely happy in being the means of putting, in time, an entire end to that cruel disorder, which has been the scourge of the human race for several ages. The nature of the subject will not permit me to expatiate upon it in a public paper; but as I flatter myself that I have some character to lose, I hope no one will do me the injustice to suppose, that I would, from the prospect of any profit, attempt to impose an inefficacious invention upon the public. By its own merit the thing itself must stand or fall; and should the honesty of the Inventor be doubted, his common sense might be trusted in a matter where, in case of failure, detection must immediately follow.

"In a paper round each bottle, particular directions for using the Lotion are given. It is only necessary to observe here, that the application is external, and need be used but once, that it has no visible effect upon the part, though its power is infallible; and no change of climate, nor length of time, can alter its quality or diminish its efficacy.

THE FRIEND IN NEED OINTMENT,

SOLD ONLY BY DIETRICHSEN AND HANNAY, 63, OXFORD STREET.

Sanctioned and Recommended by the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Numerous Eminent Medical Gentlemen.

THIS Invaluable Ointment, the discovery of that able and Scientific Surgeon, William Carpenter, Esq., of Bristol, extensively used by the faculty and families, as the most certain remedy for the Cure of Ulcerated Sore Legs, Chilblains breaking out in Children's Heads and behind their Ears, Sore or Inflamed Eyes, Burns and Scalds, Chapped Hands, Eruptions of every description, Cancerous, Scrofulous, or Indolent Tumours, Enlargement of the Glands, White Swellings, Bruises, Ringworm, Scurvy, &c., &c.

The advantage possessed by this Ointment over all others is, that it will not heal up the surface of a wound, leaving it of matter; but it will first bring all the matter to the surface, and finally heal it without its breaking out again. The following certificates, selected from some hundreds, will satisfy every one of its decided superiority:

"Dr. Clarke has used the FRIEND IN NEED OINTMENT in about thirty-five cases that have come under his care, and is of opinion it will cure those Complaints for which it is recommended SOONER and with more certainty than any application he has ever tried or heard of; he can therefore confidently recommend it.

"London, Feb., 1837."

"Sir,

"I shall feel obliged by your sending me half a dozen pots of the Friend in Need Ointment; my little girl has received great benefit from it. The Scorbutic Humour, which she has been so long afflicted with, has entirely left her. I should certainly recommend you, as an act of justice to yourself and the public, to make it generally known, and as a cure for those terrible complaints, the Ringworm and Scorbutic Humours.

"I am, yours, &c.

"Carlisle Place, Lambeth."

"EDWARD DAY.

The Proprietors feel convinced the above are sufficient to satisfy the most incredulous of its extreme healing powers, when other remedies have failed, and will induce private families to keep a Stock of the Friend in Need by them.

The Friend in Need Ointment is sold only in Pots with covers, at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. each; but from the reputation the remedy has acquired, it is imitated in various ways, it is therefore requested to observe, that unless it has the words "Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street," printed in white letters in the Government Duty Stamp pasted on each pot, it is not genuine. H. and D. will forward a 1s. 1½d. Pot, carriage-free, upon a receipt of a remittance of 2s., or a 2s. 9d. Pot, carriage free, for 4s. 6d., to any part of the kingdom.

Dr. Denman's Tonic Pills,

FOR immoderate secretions and female weaknesses, prepared from a prescription of the late Dr. Denman, an eminent physician accoucheur, and obstetric professor, need only a fair trial to convince the most sceptical of their efficacy in combating these formidable diseases, which, if not arrested as soon as the premonitory symptoms supervene, lay the foundation of that fatal malady consumption, so truly considered the "OPPROBRIUM ARS MEDICORUM."

Dr. Denman's Pills are a safe and elegant preparation; they give tone and vigour to the extremities of the secretory vessels; they do not require confinement during their administration, or restraint of living; on the contrary, the patient should be generous, but not stimulating, all vinous and fermented drinks being avoided.

It is universally acknowledged that immoderate secretions prove as injurious to the female constitution as permanent obstructions, consequently in cases which have not had early attention, and where there is great prostration of strength combined with general emaciation of the body, nothing has proved so efficacious in giving speedy relief to these distressing complaints, as Dr. Denman's Tonic Pills, and numerous instances might be given (by permission) but it is thought unnecessary to publish them. The symptoms usually attending these formidable complaints, are weakness and pain in the small of the back, attended with a paleness of the face, with, sometimes, a greenish tinge of the complexion, loss of appetite, indigestion, nausea, fainting, palpitation of the heart, and disturbed respiration, the eyelids becoming swollen and tumid.

This invaluable medicine may be administered to females of any age with perfect security; it allays all local irritation, gives tone and vigour to the constitution, purifies the system, and is particularly applicable in all cases of relaxation and debility of the system, being the only medicine on sale calculated successfully to combat the relaxation induced by sedence in the East.

They are sold in boxes at 2s. 9d. each, and in bottles, for taking abroad, at 11s. and 22s., and no lady should think of proceeding to a tropical climate without, at least, one bottle of this invaluable medicine.

Messrs. Hannay and Dietrichsen, 63, Oxford Street, London, are appointed the exclusive Agents for the sale of Dr. Denman's Tonic Pills, purchasers will therefore please to observe, that they cannot be obtained elsewhere. H. & D. will forward a box of them, free of carriage, to any part of the kingdom, on receipt of a post-office order for 3s.

Dr. Kitchener's Ginger Lozenges.

THESE Lozenges, faithfully prepared from a Receipt of the late Dr. Kitchener, so celebrated for his writings on Domestic Economy, are the strongest preparation of Ginger in a solid form extant, and will be found extremely beneficial in all cases of Nervous and Hypochondriacal Affections arising from Flatulence, attended with Cholice, Cramp, Spasm, Wind, Stomach, &c., and they will be found a most valuable acquisition to Travellers; a few of these Lozenges taken occasionally will sustain nature a much longer period against the effect of cold than any other stimulant. The efficacy of Ginger is so well known, it is unnecessary to expatiate on its properties further than by observing that it is not productive of those ill effects consequent on the use of those spices whose virtues reside in an acrid oil.—In Boxes, price 1s. 1½d.

WEIR'S DIGESTION POWDERS For the cure of Indigestion in all its Forms, Bile, and Stomach complaints, Headache, Heartburn, Flatulency, and all other Consequences of Indigestion.

Indigestion is one of the most common diseases to which persons are liable. It consists in a want of appetite, flatulency, heartburn, pain in the region of the stomach, and several nervous symptoms, which vary much in different cases. The restoration of tone to the stomach, and the general system, and the immediate removal of the painful symptoms of the disease, are therefore the objects to be sought in its cure. These Powders, which have had an extensive and most successful trial, are confidently recommended for those purposes; they mix and assimilate with the food, and may be taken in any quantity without injury, as they contain no Calomel or other preparation of Mercury, Antimony, or any noxious material. Sold in Packets at 1s. 1½d., and Bottles at 10s. each, by Dietrichsen and Hannay, 63, Oxford Street, who purchased from the inventor the sole right of making this Powder; every Packet will therefore be authenticated by their name and address printed in the Government Stamp affixed to each.

ALBERT RAU'S CELEBRATED GERMAN OINTMENT

RHEUMATISM.

Prepared and Sold only by DIETRICHSEN & HANNAY, 63, Oxford Street, London, who have purchased the Recipe and the sole and exclusive right to compound and sell the same.

Of the various diseases which afflict the human body, none are more distressing or difficult to cure than the Rheumatism and Gout; and the Medical profession and others have in vain essayed to discover a curative process which shall subdue those painful maladies without making inroads on the constitution. The want of success in those essays is to be attributed principally to the mistaken notions formed as to the cause of the diseases; but at last the celebrated Albert Rau, of Germany, adopting the opinion of some of the most eminent professional men of his native country, invented an Ointment which rarely fails to eradicate both Rheumatism and Gout. The opinion alluded to is, that the diseases are produced by coagulated blood, occasioned by various causes, and which, having to pass through the small veins near the bony parts of the human frame, creates partial obstructions; and swelling in pain, varying in intensity, are the melancholy consequences. The internal use of the colchicum and other powerful drugs does sometimes effect cures, but taken in such a form they must get into the system before they can act on the particular seat of disease, and the effects are too frequently of a very serious nature. Rau's Ointment, which has long been in general use throughout Germany, and is now gaining great celebrity in Great Britain, is composed of the most harmless ingredients, and the mode of using it is simple and effectual, as it at once attacks the parts affected without interfering with the stomach or intestines. The Ointment is introduced by being rubbed in externally on the seat of pain, and goes directly to remove the evil by dissolving the obstruction, effecting a cure in a very short time, one or two pots being sufficient to produce the desired effect. Numberless testimonials of the efficacy of the remedy could be given, among which are the following;

"Writtle, near Chelmsford, 15th June, 1839.

"Sir,—For a number of years past I have suffered from Rheumatism to that degree, that I have been frequently confined to my bed, and hardly ever able to attend to my business. I have tried almost everything without any beneficial result. On Sunday morning last, I sent for a pot of your Ointment, and applied it on the same day, and in the afternoon of that day I found such relief, that I was utterly astonished, and was able to walk up stairs, which I had not been able to do without pain for many months. I have since continued the application, and am able to attend to my work, and, in fact I am not only relieved from pain in my limbs, but I feel much better in my constitution; and I do with gratitude tell you that I am entirely relieved, and feel anxious in giving the greatest publicity to this fact, that the world generally may be benefitted in the way that I have been, as it is the most astonishing cure that can possibly be communicated, my having used the Ointment only two days.

"I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,

"W. STOKER."

"Union Yard, Conduit-street, Chelmsford, 18th June, 1839.

"Sir,—After an affliction of five years with that dreadful disease the Rheumatic Gout, during which period I tried every thing recommended to me without effect, and as I grew older the disease increased till I was incapable of following my occupation, and about a fortnight since I was totally unable to move my feet from the chair without assistance. In this state I was advised to try your German Ointment, and not being very sanguine that I ever should discover a cure, I was astonished to find that in two days I got better, and have continued to improve daily; and have now the happiness to say that I am able to attend to my business again, and I feel so much indebted to you for being instrumental in my recovery, that I am bound by every tie of gratitude to offer my most sincere thanks and best wishes for your future welfare.

"I am, Sir, your obedient and very grateful servant,

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"W. NEWCOMB, Carpenter."

"Chelmsford, June 22d, 1839.

"Sir,—I am induced to address you upon the subject of your truly valuable German Ointment, the efficacy of which I have so recently experienced, I have now been afflicted with that distressing complaint the Rheumatism for upwards of 18 months, and consequently incapable of work; I have also sought and obtained the advice of several medical men, but unfortunately without relief. Having been recommended to make trial of your Ointment, I was induced to use two pots, which have so far effected a cure as to admit of my resuming my avocation. I feel bound, sir, to make this acknowledgment of the virtues of your Ointment, and to subscribe myself,

"Your grateful Servant,

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"FREDERICK PRENTICE."

"St. Alban's, 22nd April, 1839.

"Sir,—I feel it a duty to myself and mankind to certify the virtues of Albert Rau's celebrated German Remedy, for the Cure of Gout and Rheumatism. My niece, Miss Maria Wilkins, was a fortnight ago dreadfully afflicted with a Rheumatic Fever, so that we were obliged to carry her up and down stairs; yes, she was not able to move a limb till the use of your Ointment has entirely restored her, and she is quite cured now. Incredible is it to myself the benefit which resulted in such a short time. Three days ago I had a fit of the Gout, which obliged me to go to bed; I only applied the Ointment once, and I declare not to have had the least suffering since. I will be most happy to contribute as much as is in my power to give publicity to the above, that other sufferers may be enabled to be relieved of their complaints.

I remain, &c.

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"C. BENNETT, Landlord of the Red Lion, St. Alban's."

"Redburn, 25th January, 1839.

"Sir,—I hasten to express my gratitude for your kind assistance in relieving me of the dreadful pain I was suffering for several years, after trying both medical advice and many medicines for Rheumatism. On the first application of your Ointment I found great relief, and am now quite relieved of the sufferings I had before endured. As I used the pot you gave me, and allowed me to apply as often as I should meet with poor people afflicted with Rheumatism, I pray you be so kind as to send me another pot; there is a poor man here who has lost entirely the use of his limbs, and I hope the use of your Ointment may do him as much good as it did to myself.

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"I remain, &c.

"JOSEPH NELSON WARNER."

Portsmouth, September 11, 1839.

"Sir,—For four years I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism and Rheumatic Gout, and was totally unable to perform any work during that period. I have had the advice of several medical men in Portsmouth, but I experienced no relief from them. I was some time in the Hospital at Colchester, from which place I was discharged as incurable. Having been recommended to try your German Ointment, I procured a pot, from which I experienced much benefit, and in the course of eight days, I was able to return to my employment, and have continued well ever since. I am now able to procure my regular sleep at night, which blessing I have been for a long time deprived of, and for which I feel myself indebted to your valuable remedy.

"To Mr. ALBERT RAU."

"I remain, Sir, your obliged servant,

"THOMAS OVENHALL."

Composition Pedals 10

This stupendous Instrument, when finally completed by the addition of the Choir Organ Double Open Diapason (32 feet) and Contra Trombone (32 feet) on the Pedal Organ, will respect the largest in London.

The Organ erected last year in St. Michael's Church, Chester Square, by Messrs constructed upon the same principle as the above, consisting of three sets of Manual Stops, and separate Pedal Organ.

NEW ORGAN.

(From a Correspondent.)

ON Friday evening the capabilities of a grand organ, built by Messrs Robson, the eminent organ builders of St. Martin's Lane, were tested by Mr. E. J. Hopkins, the talented organist of the Temple Church. The organ has been designed with a special object to embody as many of the finest features of the Continental and English instruments as could conveniently be introduced. There are two complete manual organs, and an independent pedal organ. The compass of both the former is from C to C in altissimo (sixty-one notes). The great organ contains sixteen stops; among which may be noticed a double open diapason in metal throughout, this being the first complete stop of the kind that has been made in London.

The largest pipes stand in the side towers of the case, and give to the instrument a most majestic appearance. The diapasons in the great organ, of which there are five, are full, sonorous, and of a particularly even quality; the mixtures (altogether eight ranks), are bright and ringing, without being cutting or steely, while the double open diapason is weighty, dignified, and impressive. Its pure and smooth sounds could be distinctly traced through the weight of the unison work, and the brilliance of the superstructure. The swell department of this instrument (containing twelve stops) is unusually successful. Subdued, yet broad and massive, as its tone is when perfectly closed, the flood of musical sound augments gradually, but very perceptibly as the shades of the swell-box are opened, or subsides by equally corresponding degrees as they close again. In the swell we again meet with a feature of which the like has not before been erected in London—namely, a double trumpet in metal down to the sixteen-foot note. This produces a most gorgeous effect when combined with the “full swell.” The solos on both manuals very closely resemble their prototypes, particularly the hautboy, clarionet, and flute, which forcibly reminded us of the corresponding stops of the apollonicon.

The pedal gam, however, is perhaps to be considered the feature of this instrument. This division (to quote from the printed account) “is too often limited, and consequently defective either in range, number of stops, or both.” In this instance, however, there are no less than nine stops disposed on this department, including reed stops of sixteen, eight, and four feet, as in the celebrated organ at Dresden. In addition to this, there is an octave coupler (the pedal organ being extended to forty-two notes), through the instrumentality of which an equivalent to eighteen pedal stops is gained. The effect of this in the pedal fugues of Bach and the “Polypheme” Chorus of Handel, was prodigious. In a word, the tout ensemble of the instrument is particularly grand, filling the ear with a rich, voluminous, and equally balanced volume of tone, free alike from all metallic, woody, and harsh effects; and it may safely be pronounced to be one of the finest instruments produced, even in the present very advanced state of the art, and fully sustains the reputation of the Messrs. Robson's establishment. The selection closen by Mr. C. Hopkins for displaying the varied powers of this noble organ, consisted of selections from the works of the great masters. We regret that want of space prevents our giving a detailed analysis of the performance; we cannot, however, refrain from noticing the interpretation of the two elaborate and florid pedal fugues of Sebastian Bach, particularly as the instrument at which Mr. Hopkins usually presides (that in Temple Church) is so very deficient in the two important particulars of pedals and pedal organ. The rendering of the Symphonies of Mozart and Weber's glorious Overture to Oberon (considered to be the gem of the evening, and which narrowly escaped an encore), is also worthy of note. In the performance of these Mr. Hopkins did not merely exercise a perfect mastery over the executive difficulties of these compositions, but also an intimate acquaintance with the instrumental scores of the works, as was evinced by the faithful portraiture of the leading features as they occurred. Handel's three charming songs—“Hush ye pretty warbling Choir,” “Verti Prati,” and “Who layeth the beams,” &c., gave good scope for the display of the stops. At the conclusion of the performance, Handel's “St. March” was called for, with which request Mr. Hopkins readily complied. Indeed, the whole performance clearly indicates Mr. Hopkins to be not only one of our first organists, but a true lover of the poetry of his art, and a musician of no ordinary stamp. The rooms were densely crowded by a highly respectable audience, who separated evidently much gratified with the evening's entertainment.

[We are enabled to supply the programme of the performance, which is well worth the space it occupies]
